The Internet

A close-up, low-angle shot of a dark, textured surface, likely a printed circuit board (PCB), with various electronic components and orange flex cables. The text "The Internet" is overlaid in white, centered on the image. The background is dark and out of focus, showing intricate details of the circuitry and components.

Safety@Facebook

People come to Facebook to share their stories, see the world through the eyes of others and connect with friends and family. Our mission is to give people the power to share and to make the world more open and connected. We want everyone to feel safe when using Facebook.

We work with external experts, including a Safety Advisory Board, and gather feedback from our community to develop policies, tools and resources to keep you safe.

Reporting on Facebook

The screenshot shows the Facebook profile of Janice Verghese. The profile header includes a search bar with the name "Janice Verghese", a search icon, and navigation links for "Gautam", "Home", and "Create". The profile picture is a circular portrait of a woman. The cover photo is a cosmic scene with a galaxy and a cracked glass effect. Below the cover photo, the name "Janice Verghese" is displayed, along with "Friends" and "Following" status indicators, and a "Message" button. A menu is open over the "Photos" tab, showing options: "See friendship", "Invite Janice to like your Pages", "Give Feedback or Report this Profile" (highlighted in blue), and "Block". The main content area shows an "Intro" section with a globe icon and the text "Followed by 615 people". Below this are several photo thumbnails. A "Create post" section is visible, with a text input field "Write something to Janice...", a "Photo/Video" button, "Tag friends" and "Feeling/Activ..." options, and a "Post" button. A post by Janice Verghese is visible at the bottom, dated "22 December 2018", with the text "Andi mandi shandi, Mummy ko lagi thandi." and hashtags "#SanskariBacche" and "#DesiGirl...".

Tips for Social Media:

- Be cautious of who you befriend on Social Media, know their real identities
- Click links carefully, don't open a catchy headline if it looks fishy
- Be careful about the information you share on Social Media including images, videos, contact information, location information etc. and control the audience for all information you share
- Be wary of the privacy, security and conduct policies of all social media services that you use and be sure to implement them in practice
- Always be aware of what you are sharing on social media, mere sharing of a post can subject you to unnecessary trouble
- Review your security and privacy settings often

Tips for General Online Safety:

- Try to never log into any accounts on unknown or untrusted systems. But if you do, log out after you're done.
- For all websites you visit, ensure that the URL is correct, the organization or individual is legitimate, language and content is not fishy and before entering your credentials, the URL reads https://.
- Download applications and other media from trusted and verified sources only. An unidentified source can infect your device and steal your data
- There's no free lunch. Don't reach out for trying to download movies, music and applications that are paid otherwise and you want them free. Such websites may land you into traps.
