The image shows a browser window displaying the Google Suite website. The address bar shows the URL: https://gsuite.google.com/?utm_source=google_products&utm_campaign. The page header includes the Google Suite logo and navigation buttons for "CONTACT SALES" and "START FREE TRIAL". The main navigation menu includes "Features", "Solutions", "Pricing", "Security", "Resources", "Support", and "Admin console". A dropdown menu is open under "Features", listing "Overview", "Connect", "Create", "Access", and "Control". The "Create" option is selected, showing a list of products: "Docs", "Sheets", "Forms", "Slides", "Sites", "Apps Script", and "G Suite Add-ons". The "Sites" option is highlighted. Below the navigation menu, there is a blue banner with the text "Working from home with G Suite, including video meetings. LEARN MORE →". The main content area features an illustration of a woman standing on a red platform, holding up a large yellow pie chart. Two men are sitting on the platform, one on each side of the woman. The background includes stylized clouds.

The image shows a user interface for publishing content. At the top, there is a navigation bar with icons for a share button (D+), settings (gear), and a menu (three dots). A prominent blue button labeled 'Publish' is visible, with a small downward arrow to its right. To the right of the 'Publish' button is a circular profile picture of a pink flower. Below the 'Publish' button, a dropdown menu is open, listing the following options: 'Publish settings...', 'Review changes and publish', 'View published site', and 'Unpublish'. To the right of the 'Unpublish' option, there is a small red icon of a document with a mountain range, and the text 'ages' is partially visible below it. At the bottom of the interface, there are two buttons: 'Embed' with a yellow double-angle bracket icon, and 'Drive' with a grey triangle-in-circle icon.
