Step 4: Open H5P Editor

Step 5: Create New H5P

Step 6: Open Course Presentation

The screenshot shows the Lumi H5P web application interface. At the top, there's a teal header with the 'Lumi' logo and a settings gear icon. Below the header, a sidebar on the left contains a 'new H5P' button and two options: 'Open H5P File' and 'New H5P file'. The main content area is titled 'VIEW' and 'EDIT'. It features a 'Select content type' section with a 'Create Content' button and a 'Paste' button. A search bar labeled 'Search for Content Types' is present. Below this, a list of 'All Content Types' is shown, with sorting options: 'Show: Popular First', 'Newest First', and 'A to Z'. The list includes three items: 'Interactive Video' (Create videos enriched with interactions), 'Course Presentation' (Create a presentation with interactive slides), and 'Multiple Choice' (Create flexible multiple choice questions). Each item has a 'Get' button with a download icon. A large red arrow points to the 'Get' button for 'Course Presentation'.

Step 10: Adding a slide

We'll start by adding a slide in the slides panel to the left. The slide titles can be used to navigate between the slides.

Press the  button (bottom left) to open the "Slides" menu. Press the pen next to "No title"  to add a slide title. Now we can move on to adding some images.

Step 11: Adding content

We add the pictures by using the  button in the top toolbar. Press this button, drag it to where you want the image to be placed and drop it there. A dialog will automatically open.

Press the  button, browse to where you saved the picture and select it for upload.

Six regularly used licenses

1. Attribution [CC BY] : This license lets others distribute, remix, adapt, and build upon your work, even commercially, as long as they credit you for the original creation. This is the most accommodating of licenses offered. Recommended for maximum dissemination and use of licensed materials.

2. Attribution-ShareAlike [CC BY-SA] : This license lets others remix, adapt, and build upon your work even for commercial purposes, as long as they credit you and license their new creations under the identical terms. This license is often compared to “copyleft” free and open source software licenses. All new works based on yours will carry the same license, so any derivatives will also allow commercial use. This is the license used by Wikipedia, and is recommended for materials that would benefit from incorporating content from Wikipedia and similarly

3. Attribution-NoDerivs [CC BY-ND] : This license lets others reuse the work for any purpose, including commercially; however, it cannot be shared with others in adapted form, and credit must be provided to you.

4. Attribution-NonCommercial [CC BY-NC]: This license lets others remix, adapt, and build upon your work non-commercially, and although their new works must also acknowledge you and be non-commercial, they don't have to license their derivative works on the same terms.

5. Attribution-NonCommercial-ShareAlike [CC BY-NC-SA]: This license lets others remix, adapt, and build upon your work non-commercially, as long as they credit you and license their new creations under the identical terms.

6. Attribution-NonCommercial-NoDerivs [CC BY-NC-ND] : This license is the most restrictive of our six main licenses, only allowing others to download your works and share them with others as long as they credit you, but they can't change them in any way or use them commercially.
